

Come Join Us For Some Electric Fun

The Northeast Philadelphia Radio Control Club is proud to announce the first annual PHiladelphia Electric Warbird picnic and fun fly on July 17, 2010. Registration starts at 8 am with a pilot's meeting at 9 am. From 9 am to 1 pm we will be flying electric powered warbirds only which includes choppers in a military scheme. Open flying will commence at 1 pm for the rest of the day. 3-D planes are welcomed to attend but there will be no 3-D flying before 1 pm. No turbines please. Food and beverages will be available and there will be raffles and prizes galore. So join us on July 17 and make PHEW a success. For directions to the NEPRCC field, please visit the web site below. See you on the 17th!
